HOW CONSIGNING WORKS

Registration fee: $15.00 in Cash

- We will accept 14 items per consignment session.
- We will review the 14 items on Monday and move those that we cannot accept to the Thrift Shop.
- You must hang your items on shop hangers when you bring them in.
- Please prescreen your items for: stains, holes, pilling, bad fasteners, pet hair, odors, and wrinkles.
- Garments should be laundered and ironed or steamed.
- All items must have a brand label.
- Altered items are not accepted.
- All items must have been originally priced at $15 or more.
- We are no longer accepting owner pricing; pricing is at the discretion of the shop.
- Tags must be pinned on each garment's label with the owner's name, registration number, description, size, and gender specification, prior to having them reviewed.
- You will earn 50% of the selling price if the item is sold within the four-week selling period.
- You may pick up your unsold items no later than 2pm by the Saturday of the specified Return to Owner (RTO) date. Please pick up the RTO Reminder Slip when consigning.
- Unsold items that are not picked up by the owner, by the RTO date, become store property. This includes Blue Dot items (items that are returned to the consigner due to imperfections not initially seen). Please check with an employee if this applies to any of your consigned items.
- Items may be re-consigned ONE time but must be removed from the shop for at least a two-week period before they are brought back for re-consignment with the original WSL tag attached.
- Articles are consigned at the owner's risk.
- The Consignment Shop is not responsible for damage or loss by fire, theft, or vandalism. We carry no insurance covering loss to you.
- If you cannot find an article on the selling floor, a lost claim card may be filled out.
- Please call the shop Monday, after 3pm, to find out what items will not be accepted for the week.
- We reserve the right to close due to inclement weather.
- If in doubt, please call or visit our Facebook or Instagram page.
